BELGRADE, June 7.—It is estimated that there are 300,000 visitors in this city to-night from all parts of Europe for to-morrow's wedding of King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia and Princess Marie, second daughter of the King and Queen of Rumania.

After the arrival of the Rumanian royal family yesterday there was a great outpouring of the people and the streets were filled with gay crowds all night. The peopulace gathered in front of the royal palace and sang national songs while the King and the future Queen appeared on the balcony frequently to scknowledge demonstrations.

The members of the Congressional Visitors arrived at 11:30 a. m. At noon there was a review of cadets. After the review luncheon was served at the Officers' Club.
